Dear Sir,

The slip which I enclose, is from the Press of to-day, a City daily, & announces the death of a Graduate of the Class of 1826.

He was a man of decided ability, but for many years hopelessly insane.

I have supposed that you may have charge of the Obituary department of the Annual notices. If not, you will, no doubt, give this note its proper direction.

I should be glad to receive a Triennial of 1862.

and if you will forward it,
I will enclose its price, if a change is made to alumni.
I enclose stamps to cover
the postage.

Very respectfully,
Horace Binney Jr.

To,
The Librarian
of Yale College.
