Washington Dec. 7. 1861.
Prof. D. Gilman

My dear Mr. Gilman.

I have been trying for some weeks to learn the name of the able writer of the letters on Chinese affairs &c in the "Voice", and was so fortunate as to hear it, for the first time, last evening.

Will you have the kindness to present my respects to Prof.
Martino and ask if he has the letters in any other than the newspaper form. I failed to get all of them, and am desire to have a complete site. I wish I could meet Prof. M. before he leaves for China. If it is agreeable to him while out there I would like to correspond with him upon matters of interest to China and on its relations to scientific civilization and industrial development.

Yours truly,
W. F. Blake
