Dear Sir:—

I read in the Balto Sun of this morning a speech that you made yesterday at a banquet given to some of your benefactors, The kind courtesy of your remarks about our newly founded Gaelic Chair moves me very much, and I take the liberty of writing to express my appreciation of it.

I send you an account of the proceedings on the occasion of the foundation of the Chair, and you will be pleased to see that there is a certain coincidence
