Yale Review

1857 Feb 1 Nos 1 & 2

We shall be grateful for any Nos which may go towards completing our series, which you see is very imperfect. There are other publications at Yale, ephemeral, I perceive, some years since the Library got possession of the Yale Banger for Nov. 1846 & Oct 22, 1847. Such publications, a hundred years hence, will be curious as illustrative of the "spirit of the times". I should save all which I could get.

Mr. Abbot has returned & says you thought you could furnish some of the deficiencies. Please to send, when you get the parcel from Fredland, by Express & add on the outside "Books Cambridge Express"

Respectfully yours
John Langdon Sibley
