Hon.

C. A. Collier

President and Director General of the Cotton States and International Exposition

Hon. Sir:

With reference to our conversation I take the liberty to beg you to be kind enough to include the following names in the list of the international juries.

Prof. Dr. W. P. Wilson, Director of the Philadelphia Museum, Dir. of the School of Biologic (University of Pennsylvania) and Council of the Argentine Republic, Philadelphia for Group 4.

Prof. Chas. Richards Dodge, special agent in charge of fibre investigations U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington for group 10.

and myself, as Commissioner of the Argentine Government and as naturalist in charge of the organization and installation of the Philadelphia commercial and economic Museum for groups 5 and 11.

In view of the varied interests which I represent for my government and for 658 exhibitors I beg you also to give me the privilege to join at my convenience also the juries of some other groups of the Department B in which the Argentine Republic is especially represented.

Thanking you beforehand for your great kindness, I beg to remain, very respectfully

yours

Gustavo Niederlein

Commissioner of the Argentine Government.
