and

Hon. Sir:

A few weeks ago I had the honor to present to you, after a special interview, on your request, an official note containing the names of three gentlemen, who your Honor wished to appoint judges in the international jury of awards of the Cotton States and International Exposition. The named gentlemen were:

- 1 Prof. Dr. William Russell Wilson, Director of the Philadelphia Museums, Director of School of Biologie and Professor of Botany at the University of Pennsylvania
- 2 Prof. Chas Richard Dodge, Special Agent for fibre investigations at the National Department of Agriculture in Washington and myself, as commissioner of the Argentine Government and
