Sept 9th '95-

Prof D. C. Gilman -

My dear Sir,

I address you in regard to the jury of Awards for the Atlanta Exposition, and enclose copies of letters speaking of my abilities.

I served during the Worlds Fair on Group 91 - Ceramics and Mosaics; Bricks and terra cotta; Tiles; Mural decoration; and designs for fire places, and mosaics. in fact upon clay work and Art applied to clay manufacture, including china painting.

My knowledge is practical from the composition of the clays and glazes, the precipitation of the colors from the minerals, application of the decorations, to the firing of the kilns.

I can furnish other testimonials if necessary, or would refer you to Mr Solomon Stratton of the firm Jones, McDuffee & Stratton, Franklin St. Boston
Mr John R. Botwell, Findlay, Ohio, Mr Louis Prang Roxbury, Mass. Prof. Morse - Salem, Mass.

I visited the Midwinter Fair as critic at San Francisco, and hope to visit the Paris exposition, also the great exhibition in Japan the coming year. I should greatly appreciate the opportunity to serve on the jury for Atlanta.

Mrs Greenhalge wife of our Governor Mrs Roger L. Wolcott, wife of our Lieut Gov.
and Mrs Alice N. Lincoln. Secy of Colonial Committee <sup>for Atlanta</sup> - Room 150 - Boston State House would give you definite information of me. Mrs Roger L. Wolcott, Commonwealth Ave

Boston. Knowing my work particularly well.

Sincerely Yours.

Mrs. Ellen A. Richardson

The originals of the enclosed letters are at your disposal if you desire.
