BROAD STREET STATION,
PHILADELPHIA.

My Dear Sir:-

upon receipt of your note on Monday I called upon you at Dr. Goodie's office in the Nat. Museum Washington and remained until 2 p.m. thinking you might be delayed. fearing there is some misunderstanding I write to say that I shall return to Washington to-morrow to remain during the coming week.

Mr. Ely who is on the list of names I had prepared to hand you on Monday received your note this morning. I trust he may be prevailed upon to accept. although October is his busy month.
