The home of the director of the Lyric theater since 1920. In 1929 he brought out the first major Shakespearean production in the city, with such a success that it was repeated for many years. His stage management was said to be perfect, and his directorial talent was recognized throughout France for the American productions he presented there. His work was praised for its fidelity to the text and its innovative staging techniques.

Eugene Ionesco, known for his avant-garde theatrical style, was also involved in the management of the Lyric Theater. Under his leadership, the theater became a center for experimental and innovative productions, attracting both local and international audiences. Ionesco's influence on the theater's artistic direction is evident in the innovative and thought-provoking productions that were showcased there.

The theater's role in the cultural life of the city cannot be overstated. It served as a hub for artistic expression and innovation, fostering a sense of community and bringing together diverse audiences interested in the arts.

In summary, the Lyric Theater, under the guidance of its directors, played a significant role in shaping the cultural landscape of the city. Its contributions to the arts will be remembered for generations to come.
The Johns Hopkins News-Letter

Administrative Changes

Dean Shaffer has announced administration changes to be effective in the fall. The new positions reflect the administration's desire to be more effective in the fall's required duties. The changes include the appointment of a new chief of staff, the creation of an Office of Special Projects, and the relocation of some administrative offices to better suit the university's needs.

India and Arm-chair Scrambling

The news-Letter has received several replies from the newspaper's editorial staff. One reader, from the Times of India, expresses concern over the lack of coverage of India in the newspaper. Another reader, from the Indian Express, raises the issue of the need for more coverage of India's cultural and artistic achievements.

Undergraduate Affairs

The newspaper has received several letters from students criticizing the administration's handling of student affairs. One student, from the University of California, Berkeley, writes about the lack of autonomy given to student groups and the excessive control by the administration. Another student, from the University of Michigan, writes about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes.

The Council for Student Affairs

The Council for Student Affairs has released its annual report. The report highlights the council's efforts to improve student life on campus, including initiatives such as increased funding for student organizations, improved housing conditions, and expanded health services.

A Great Hopkins Doctor

Johns Hopkins University has appointed Dr. Jane Smith as the new dean of the School of Medicine. Dr. Smith has a distinguished career in academic medicine and is well-respected for her contributions to the field of cardiology.

Goucher-Hopkins Controversy

In the March 6 edition of the News-Letter, there is an article critical of the administration's handling of the controversy between Goucher and Hopkins. The article highlights the tension between the two institutions and raises questions about the future of their relationship.

A Weekend on Broadway

The newspaper has compiled a list of theater shows currently playing in New York City. The list includes popular plays such as "The Time of Your Life," "A Great Plainsman," and "The Great Gatsby." The newspaper also provides reviews of these shows, highlighting their strengths and weaknesses.

The Metropolitan Side-show

The newspaper has compiled a list of events currently taking place in the metropolitan area. The list includes concerts, art exhibits, and cultural events. The newspaper also provides reviews of these events, discussing their impact on the local arts scene.

For industrial research!

In these critical times engineers at Western Electric are at work harder than ever developing electronic equipment for the armed services in the vast and strategic field of electronic warfare. They are applying their knowledge of electromagnetic theory to the production of new and improved electronic equipment. These are being applied in the production of...
Blues On Eds

AWins Basketball in Gymboree Tilt

Wednesday night at the Homewood gym, the 85th annual Gumboree was held. In the three feature attractions of the evening, Phi Delta Phi defeated Alpha Delta Delta 23 to 19 in basketball, Phi Epsilon Pi defeated Alpha Delta Phi 25 to 18 in volleyball, and Eta Tau Alpha outpolled the Phi Delta Phi 25 to 18 in tug-of-war.

Badminton Holds First Match

Coach Henry Bonner's badminton team, newest intersquad group on campus, opened with a win in the first contest of the year Monday at 8 p.m. in the Old Gym. The other matches will be played out in a series of matches to determine the champion.

Six Lettermen Return for Tennis

About 30 men, including 14 letter- men from last year's squad, appeared in practice last week to prepare for the tennis team.

Sailor Smedley's Pipe was Dead

"I'm out of the dog house now!"

Our Record Shop Has

Symphony and Boogie Woogie

Wednesday night at the Homewood gym, the 85th annual Gumboree was held. In the three feature attractions of the evening, Phi Delta Phi defeated Alpha Delta Delta 23 to 19 in basketball, Phi Epsilon Pi defeated Alpha Delta Phi 25 to 18 in volleyball, and Eta Tau Alpha outpolled the Phi Delta Phi 25 to 18 in tug-of-war.

Badminton Holds First Match

Coach Henry Bonner's badminton team, newest intersquad group on campus, opened with a win in the first contest of the year Monday at 8 p.m. in the Old Gym. The other matches will be played out in a series of matches to determine the champion.

Six Lettermen Return for Tennis

About 30 men, including 14 letter- men from last year's squad, appeared in practice last week to prepare for the tennis team.

Sailor Smedley's Pipe was Dead

"I'm out of the dog house now!"
Weekend on Broadway (Continued from Page 2)

The play ends, Jason, the critic (probably George Jean Nathan), de-

The main thing is that all time of them is different and yet we're all really critical. In the end Jason leads the play to the end. The more he says that Ambler wins himself into the confidence of the public with romantic folderol; in the Off-the-Cuff, he says that Mike Ambler may be a fool and a charlatan, but he is also as quick-witted as an angel. All three can be applied to the subject of the real thing.

Lady in the Dark (Continued from Page 2)

Gertrude Lawrence, the product of the music hall, has returned to her starting point in the theater—no real success. It is to be hoped, however, that she will learn from the experience she has had in order to improve. The critics are not unanimous in their praise, but those who have seen the play have been highly complimentary. The music, the acting, the direction—all are excellent. The story is original and the production is well done.

Reserve Officer Interviews Students (Continued from Page 1)

But each of these students would probably prove contrast in the personnel纳 to those of the officer cadet corps. (V-2) apart from the academic and physical qualifications and aptitude, he may be transferred to this V-2 class. If he chooses the regular V-2 course, he will be permitted to continue his college education and will be released to a baccalaureate degree, taking curricula acceptable to the Navy department.

Goucher-Hopkins Controversy (Continued from Page 2)

There's satisfaction in knowing that the 8% revenue tax you pay on each pack of twenty cigarettes is doing its bit for Uncle Sam.

Every time you buy Chesterfields you get something that satisfies. For you honestly believe that you are getting a product that is worth every penny of the money you spend.

Metropolitan Side Show (Continued from Page 2)

There's no question that this show is a success and it is easy to see why.

There are many other reasons why this show has been so popular. The music is excellent, the acting is good, and the direction is well done.

Chesterfield—The world's best cigarette tobacco... in a form that satisfies.