THE OLD TOWN
RAYMOND HITCHCOCK PRESENTS
HITCHY KOO
1920
BOOK BY GLEN MCDONOUGH
LYRICS BY GLEN MCDONOUGH AND ANNE CALDWELL
MUSIC BY JEROME KERN
STAGED BY NED WAYBURN
Vocal Selections
Moon of Love ......................... 60
The Old Town ....................... 60
Girls in the Sea ..................... 60
Cupid, the Winner ................... 60
Chick! Chick! Chick! .................. 60
Ding Dong, It's Kissing Time ...... 60
The Star of Hitchy Koo ............ 60
Buggy Riding ....................... 60
T. B. HARM'S COMPANY
NEW YORK
The Old Town

Words by ANNE CALDWELL

Music by JEROME KERN

Andante espressivo

I'm getting near fifty And what is called by the world a success;

Allegretto grazioso

I've been lucky and thrifty I've got a fortune of Copyright MCMXX by T.B. Harms Co., N.Y.

All Rights Reserved International Copyright Secured size to impress, I've money and leisure to go wherever I will and remain; But the cresc.

one happy sport I would choose of the lot— Isn't reached—by the steamer or train:— I'd

T.P.H.Co. 163-4 The Old Town Burthen
very legato (cantabile)

I like to gather one more wild oat, Of the kind that used to grow— In the by-gone days By the great white way In the little New York that we used to know: If in his track could time turn back, I wouldn't need a guide, For one more round of the fun We found before the old town died. I'd died.