Moderato

When I'm at the track, In the racing season,
If to see them run, One fine day you ramble,

Not a tip I back, I've sufficient reason,
And decide, for fun, You will take a gamble

I don't care to win A lot of gold or glory
Here's a little tip, Place bets for a beginning
But with Love it's quite another story.
If the race for husbands you'd be winning.

Burthen

Cupid, he's the only one to get on,
For the favorite is

Cupid, he's the one I want to

T. B. H. Co. 160 - 4 Cupid, The Winner
You'll find that when true love is a starter on your life track, Though he's left at the post, he will not turn back, Cupid's foxy, cunning, He'll be in the running.

Cupid, He's the only one to play, Come on there!

Come on there! Cupid, Do be a winner to-day.
