Tim,

As we discussed in our recent email correspondence, I am sending you hard copies of the copyright permissions letters that will be bound with my dissertation, so you can include them with the digital copies of my dissertation as a part of the ETD pilot project. There are three such letters, each of which I have enclosed a copy of. You may dispose of these hard copies as you wish when you are done with them.

If you need to contact me concerning these letters, you can do so by email at adam.goldstein@jhu.edu, or by phone at (646) 670 - 6242.

Thanks for your time and energy with this project. I think that this is very important work, and I am glad to be a part of it.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Adam Goldstein", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Adam Goldstein

Subject: Image reproduction permission

Hello,

I am currently writing a dissertation on random genetic drift, and I would like permission to include the following image in the dissertation:

http://evolution.berkeley.edu/evosite/history/images/adapted\_scape.gif

The image is of Sewall Wright's adaptive landscape, and it appears on the following web page:

<http://evolution.berkeley.edu/evosite/history/randommutts.shtml>

I would like permission to use the image in the hard copy of the dissertation, as well as in the copy to be archived with UMI in hard copy, microfilm, and electronic formats.

The dissertation is to be submitted to the Johns Hopkins University, Department of Philosophy, Baltimore, Maryland.

Please contact me by email by responding to this address, or preferably, with a hard-copy response, to Adam Goldstein, 708 West 171st St. #31A, New York, New York, 10032. If you require my request for permission in hard copy, provide me with the address, and I can provide it.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Adam Goldstein

PERMISSION AGREEMENT

Invoice# 034701

Thank you for your request to use the publications of The Johns Hopkins University Press. We are pleased to grant GRATIS permission to reproduce the material detailed below, subject to the following terms:

1. A credit line must appear on the copyright page, on the page on which the selection begins, in standard academic citations, or in your customary acknowledgment section, as follows:

Gillespie, John H. Population Genetics: A Concise Guide. pp. 54, Figure 3.3. © 1998 The Johns Hopkins University Press. Reprinted with permission of The Johns Hopkins University Press.

2. Permission does not apply to any part of the selection (text or graphic material) that is independently copyrighted or bears a separate source notation. The responsibility for determining the source of the material rests with the prospective user of the reprinted material.

3. This non-exclusive agreement covers English language rights for your dissertation in print, microfilm, and electronic format only, and does not allow the use of our material in any other edition or by any additional means of reproduction including, but not limited to, printed material, motion pictures, sound tapes and other audio recordings, and electronic formats, including, but not limited to, web site and CD-ROMs; nor does this permission include book clubs, translations, abridgments, or selections of the publication.

If you do not use the material, please notify us.
