Baltimore.

Sir.

I arrived here yesterday as I understood from some of the Lacy Managers that there was still work enough to be passed upon to warrant my coming. I feel quite at a loss with no head to the affairs with in which place I have rendered such distinguished service to this enterprise of the South-Land. Will you there for kindly give me a list of those persons who were present under you, that if any are left I may consult them about a few matters. In one of the divisions in which I was Judge at The Columbian Exposition. Dr Carl Buentz the German Consul at Chicago was President. In the other Mrs Kimball, were either of these gentlemen upon your board?

There were also some Sp - Amer-ican friends of mine who were to meet me here and I hoped to put them under the charm of your gifts so that they would contribute either their children or their untimely fortune to Johns Hopkins.

I also wish to have you know a very special friend of mine a Roman sculptor who comes to Baltimore shortly to make a bust of His Eminence, Jas. Card. Gibbons.

would it be convenient for you to receive him? The Gov. of Ohio, and quite a number of personages don't know to me send letters to you in my favor but I think Mrs. Felt's Reverence thinks as she then was on the awards committee - and if you had done so I should not need to ask if I might send my friend with a note to you. He has known however many of the first minds of Europe, & he speaks for him self.

Is there any one living in Alliance to whom you would commend me I being quite a stranger & feel helpless in my position With very sincere regards that I was so late that I will not meet you I am Dr. Edmund

If you will be kind enough to reply to my several questions addressing me there I shall be under many obligations.
